DICK'S TRICKS

President Nixon's new flair for the spectacular will next be manifested by an announcement that he will withdraw all U.S. ground forces from Vietnam by next spring except for a small volunteer force to remain for air and logistic support of the South Vietnamese Army. And perhaps simultaneously Nixon will abandon the draft and establish an all-volunteer-armed force as soon as "feasible."

Political insiders say Nixon will likely pull this coup before the end of this year. Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien has been warning the liberal Democratic Presidential aspirants that the Vietnam War would not be a campaign issue next year. Both Senators Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) and George McGovern (D-SD) vociferous Vietnam "doves" are now quietly walking away from the issue.

The liberals in Congress howled for a controlled national economy and Nixon dramatically pulled the rug out from under his Democratic critics with his surtax-taxcut-rent-price-wage freeze package. By stealing his rivals' thunder he virtually nullified the liberals' projected economic issues. And Nixon's unexpected announcement of his trip to Peking next spring put the left-wingers to shame; several liberal Senators had to cancel their own plans for a junket to Peking.

Columnist Stewart Alsop asks: "It is possible that we journalists are keeping a lot of moribund Presidential hopefuls alive because we need something to write about?"

The Democrats are in a real quandary; in the backrooms they grump: "The Nixon wage-price freeze hasn't put people back to work yet, and it will take time before anyone feels the tax benefits. But the Democrats in Congress had better not throw any roadblocks in front of Nixon's plan. The country just won't stand for obstructionism." Dick Nixon is a shrewd hand in estimating public gullibility and in assuaging Southern feelings on the emotional busing issue.

Nixon knows he has the GOP nomination in the bag; Nixon figures that the conservatives of both major parties have no place to go since it is highly unlikely any conservative can capture the Democratic nomination.

MURRAY'S MINIONS

The criminal indictment of Dr. William L. Pierce last month is a setback for the White House plan to emasculate all conservative opposition prior to the 1972 election.

This long-range plan was decided prior to the 1968 Republican Convention, in Miami. Nixon and his advisors, principally including "Marvelous Murray" Chotiner (see WO-61, 85, 94, 105, 107, 108, 111, 112, 116, 124), knew that the support of South Carolina's Strom Thurmond was absolutely essential not only for the nomination but the election of Richard Nixon.

The overall strategy was to use the GOP conservatives to secure the nomination and election; then, once elected, to move to the extreme internationalist Left as rapidly as the conservatives could be rendered harmless.

Nixon made a commitment to Thurmond to clear Supreme Court nominees with him in return for his support. Thurmond fell for the bait, which meant nothing to Nixon, who knew that the press would smear and destroy any Supreme Court nominee Thurmond might approve. But because of Thurmond's support, Nixon was nominated and, later, was able to carry enough southern states against George Wallace for election.

After the election, Murray Chotiner set about on Phase Two of the master plan—to destroy the American Right prior to the election of 1972, in order to allow Nixon to surface as an open Leftist.

Success of this plan depended upon his ability to "divide and conquer" the Right. With the backing of the White House, Chotiner made overtures to the "moderate conservatives," mainly the group of self-serving hirelings and profiteers around William F. Buckley, Jr., editor of National Review. If they would cooperate with him, promised Chotiner, they could expect influence in the White House beyond their wildest imagination. The Buckley group eagerly cooperated with the wily Chotiner.

On the other hand, and working directly with the Anti-Defamation League, Chotiner devised a "pincers movement," the aim of which was to so harass and financially undermine independent and non-partisan Rightist groups, such as Liberty Lobby that they could not continue operations.

In late 1969, Liberty Lobby began experiencing a wide range of problems internally at the same time that the "respectable" and "responsible" pro-Zionist conservative groups were attempting to undermine the institution from the outside by whispering campaigns and outright smears.

Ex-employees Leo Don Phillips and Mike Jaffe tried to set up a lobby in Washington to compete with Liberty Lobby (see WO 86, 95, 102, 104, 108, 116), planning to use the institution's mailing list of supporters, members and subscribers to solicit funds, thus undermining Liberty Lobby's financial support.

Immediately afterwards, Liberty Lobby's new computer was sabotaged. Vandalism and arson followed. The IRS levied a demand for $56,000 in "back taxes." Massive effort on the part of loyal employees and supporters saved the embattled institution.

In late 1970, one Louis T. Byers, who had established a reputation as a violently outspoken "Nazi," surfaced as an ally of Murray Chotiner (a Jew) and the "Institute for American Democracy," an ADL operation headed by Charles "Greentooth" Baker.

Byers persuaded Dr. William L. Pierce—who was earlier expelled from the American Nazi Party—to become his front man. They sent out a 10-page smear of Liberty Lobby to the Liberty Lobby mailing list which Byers had stolen.

Thousands of dollars have been spent by Byers and his associates, including his business partner, Leo Donald Phillips, head of the short-lived "American Lobby" and "American-Southern Africa Council," in the attempt to destroy Liberty Lobby. None of the conspirators, however, will reveal the source of their funds.

Byers was also instrumental in a 12-page smear of Liberty Lobby that appeared in the Sept. 10 issue of National Review. "Nazi" Byers worked closely with the author of the smear, Chris Simonds. Byers was able to precisely predict when the issue of NR would appear that carried the smear, thus proving collusion between "Nazi" Byers and pro-Zionist National Review.

WO, incidentally, in its issue of April 1, 1970, first exposed the intent of National Review to smear Liberty Lobby, and correctly stated that it would be written by Simonds to specifications of the ADL. Buckley began work on the smear in late 1969 but for various reasons delayed it for almost two years, meanwhile revising it four times.

On September 1, a federal grand jury in Washington handed down an indictment of Dr. William L. Pierce for selling stolen property—the stolen property being the mailing lists belonging to Liberty Lobby. The indictment was made public on September 27. Pierce faces the penitentiary if found guilty.

Pierce is reportedly extremely unhappy at being the "fall guy" for the fast-talking Byers, who stole the lists and who received half of the loot from Pierce, who peddled them for him.

Thief Byers has been called "a man of undoubted integrity" by Dr. Revilo P. Oliver and Richard Cotten, both of whom have strongly backed Byers and Pierce in their operation to split the conservative forces in the U.S.

The criminal indictment against Pierce is expected to bring much of the above into the open, all of which could prove extremely embarrassing for "Marvelous Murray," William F. Buckley, Jr. and company.

CAPITALIST COMMUNISM

What's going to happen when the 90-day wage-price-rent freeze ends at midnight, Nov. 13? This is the sixty-four-dollar question everyone in Washington is asking. President Nixon, now known as the Man on the Flying Trapeze, astounds the world with his nonchalance in swinging from Right to Left—first toward Peking—now toward economic controls.

The liberal press—always highly critical of Nixon—now sings paeans, lauding adroit, mind-changing flexibility. And we hear no plaintive cries from the CFR-Wall Street-international banker coterie. The only dissenting voice is from the camps of organized labor, where we hear the ominous growl of George Meany, labor's Big Boss, but the pollsters claim he does not have the support of labor's rank and file. All the liberal economists have hailed Nixon's economic moves, and the liberals in Congress only complain that he did not act soon enough.

But Nixon is still in mid-air in many of his dazzling exploits, swinging from one trapeze to another as if he were performing simultaneously in all rings of a five-ring circus. Pulling out of Vietnam, beefing up Israel's military forces, flirting with Red China, saving the dollar, nuclear agreement with Red Russia, saving Lockheed, improving balance of payments and liberal tax write-offs. His insouciant shift of gears has reversed all his previous policies. And nobody knows what surprises he is going to pull out of his electorally-motivated bag of tricks. In his high school days he did not get the nickname "Tricky Dick" for nothing. And his brother Navy lieutenants can testify to the fact that he pulled some neat quickies on them in poker games; one payday night he picked up $10,000 off the table. And he welched on pay off when he lost as he did in a Havana casino when he lost $20,000.

Nixon's surprise exploits are the daring of an old pro in the political game. The news media avidly praises his "psychological shock treatment" of the general public, which seems to be paying off to date. But behind blithe nonchalance is a sinister and grim plan that does not show through the public relations camouflage. His shock therapy was a superb performance in psychological warfare. But what comes next?

We are told that when the 90-day freeze expires, we will enter Phase II of Nixon's economic theatrics. We may have reason to fear its success. The master architect of the Nixon's economic planning is Arthur F. Burns (an Austrian born Jew, whose real name is Burnswieg or Burnseig; his wife's maiden name is Bernstein).

Burns came in with the Nixon Administration with a unique new title: "Counsellor to the President." The leftist New Republic cautioned: "One of his tasks is to detect and resolve disputed issues of policy and administration before they become the President's problems. It is a conception that requires high officials, Cabinet members included, to recognize his primacy and to accept his intervention without appeal to President Nixon."

The Left wingers knew the true power, but the general public is still unaware of it. Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally is taking the front on Nixon's economic control schemes, but every time Connally holds an open press conference, Burns immediately follows up with a "backgrounder" conference. This is the term used for off-the-record news conferences where the official giving the briefing can't be quoted directly. (Burns' opposite number in the foreign policy sector, Henry Kissinger, conducts many "backgrounder" conferences. Kissinger is a German-born Jew).

The journalists privileged to be invited to Burns-Kissinger conferences are carefully "screened" for their "reliability" in favorably presenting the Administration's viewpoint. Every newsman in Washington knows that Burns charted Nixon's economic control plan and induced Nixon to sign a Declaration of a National Emergency, which gives him the wartime powers of a dictator if he decides to invoke such powers. The newsmen haven't even mentioned that Nixon has issued a National Emergency Declaration—let alone that Burns was behind it! This is an example of the free press in America today!

The first global conference on the new economic control plans was held in April this year at Woodstock, Vermont, under the aegis of David and Laurence Rockefeller and was known as a "Bilderberger Meeting" where all the international bankers and their economists and public relations experts met. This was exclusively reported by WASHINGTON OBSERVER. Immediately after the great bankers returned to their paneled boardrooms in London, Paris, Berlin and Wall Street they started devaluing the American dollar. The top insiders reaped quick profits of hundreds of millions of Eurodollars in a hurry. Economists estimate that over $20 billion Eurodollars were converted in a ten-day period at profits ranging from 5% to 10%. This financial coup d'etat was played down in the world press. Henry Kissinger was a "participant" in the Woodstock conference and Arthur Burns was an "unofficial adviser." They both committed the United States to the revision of the International Monetary Fund.

The sudden, dramatic wage-price-rent freeze is Phase I in the sugar-coated plot to regiment the American national economy, and is the forerunner of the international cartelization of the world economy. After that will come the detente with the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China, according to a noted British economist who is a consultant to Burns' economic planning clique. This is why Nixon's liberal critics are muted.

Two of Burns' hand-picked Jewish henchmen, Herbert Stein, a member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Arnold R. Weber, Associate Director of the Office of Management and Budget, are developing Phase II in the regimentation of the national economy. A federally-controlled national economy was the dream of the New Deal Brain Trusters, but they were thwarted in their "implementation" with the death of FDR.

Ironically, Dr. Burns, as the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, has the built-in mechanism to stymie the inflation, but instead he fueled the inflationary spiral. Then he induced Nixon to invoke the mandatory economic powers of the Presidency.

Phase II will be highly palatable to the public since it will appear as thaw in the rigid restraints of the freeze. But gradually the real deep freeze will come—after the Presidential election. The enforcement task forces are being quietly set up by beefing up oldline agencies like the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Commerce. Already, the Bureau of Domestic Commerce has a "Mobilization Readiness Division" and a "Mobilization Plan and Procedures Division." Thousands of Federal workers are being transferred to these new surveillance and enforcement teams in the hush-hush atmosphere of wartime mobilization under the aegis of the White House's Office of Emergency Preparedness, which is appropriately headed by an Army General, George A. Lincoln, who happens to be a Rhodes Scholar and a member of the Council of Foreign Relations.

To date, only one new agency has been created, namely, Cost of Living Council, chaired by Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, with Arthur Burns as "Adviser", and his protege Arnold R. Weber as Executive Director, who, of course, is the real operating head; the other names on the membership list are mere window-dressing. The only other new agency contemplated at this time is a tri-partite Wages and Prices Board with legal authority to set new standards for acceptable wage increases; to conciliate organized labor, big moguls from labor will be offered Presidential memberships on the board.

The Rockefellers are represented in the economic control hierarchy by a Chase Manhattan bank vice president, Paul A. Volcker, Under Secretary of the Treasury for Monetary Affairs; his job is to work out a new monetary exchange formula. Only two months ago Volcker and Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis) clashed before the Joint Economic Committee. Ever since he was a delegate to the Woodstock Conference, Reuss has advocated that the U.S. cease converting foreign-held dollars for gold and permit the dollar to "float."

Volcker was then opposed to devaluing the dollar while actually shaping up the plans for the devaluation. Volcker is regarded inside the Treasury Department as a champion of the banking interests. He studied monetary policy at the London School of Economics. It is significant that interest rates were exempted from the freeze order. Also, oil imports were exempted from the 10% import tax—thanks to Pete Flanigan, the Dillon, Read man in the White House, who hand-picked George Lincoln as Director of the Office of Emergency Preparedness, which among other functions controls oil quotas.

So as to painlessly curb mortgage rate increases without imposing interest ceilings, the Federal Home Loan Bank has reduced the minimum liquidity requirements on savings and loan associations; this will release an extra $1 billion for freeze spending and fuel inflation. The consumer is already heavily in debt; almost a quarter of his after-tax wages is going toward paying off what he owes. Business is in the same predicament; industrial firms have long term debts equaling more than 40% of fixed assets. Arthur Burns has now talked Wilbur Mills into changing the tax laws so corporations can go further in debt. The buy-borrow-buy cycle feeds the inflation spiral. And the Burns-Nixon economic control scheme is not designed for meaningful curbs but to cartelize production, distribution and profit sharing on a global basis.

The economic straight-jacket will be applied in full force after Mr. Nixon is re-elected next year. The socialistic replacement of the free enterprise system will be hailed as the "stabilization of the world economy." Far-fetched as this may seem, the trend is inexorable—unless Middle America awakes.

Observations

Nixonites fear most a Democratic ticket of Senators Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) and Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass). . . . Teamsters Union Vice President Harold Gibbons will be invited to accompany President Nixon to Peking next spring. . . . Nixon is making a big pitch for Puerto Rican and Mexican votes by appointing Latin politicians to limelight posts in his Administration—but with little authority. . . . Wall Streeter Howard Stein is bankrolling ex-Sen. Gene McCarthy's projected left-wing third party.

After he is re-elected Mr. Nixon will seek a 10% national sales tax. . . . Nixon and Kissinger will visit Moscow on their way back from Peking. . . . Communist Rumania is going to get Export-Import Bank credits. . . . On the Washington cocktail circuit the Nixon Administration is humorously referred to as the "Regency of Drs. Kissinger and Burns." Dr. Henry A. Kissinger is foreign policy regent and Dr. Arthur F. Burns is economic regent. Nixon is touted as the "first of the ceremonial Presidents in U.S. history"—hinting more to come!

23 newspapers have dropped Bill Buckley's syndicated column as a result of his sundry hoaxes. . . . The U.S. is going to pick up the tab for the "Rehabilitation or restoration of public services damaged by war" in Israel when the war is concluded. . . . No price freeze on entertainment—certain theatres are allowed to boost prices—professional sports teams now seeking exemption to ticket price freeze.

The Soviets recently allowed 23 top American oil executives to inspect its vast oil field in Western Siberia—an area where no foreigner was ever allowed to visit before; the USSR is now openly a full-fledged member of the international oil cartel. Recently, the cartelists from 65 countries met in Moscow. The Soviets are getting ready to undercut the Mideast Arabs in selling oil to Japan. Paradoxically, this Soviet ploy will give American oil cartelists leverage in dealing with the recalcitrant Arab rulers who are demanding 20% ownership in Anglo-American oil facilities in the Middle East in addition to the recent hike in royalties.

Ex-Nazi Assailed by Eggs, Stink Bomb

by Dick Polman
News Editor

An ex-American Nazi Party member fell victim to an egg and stink bomb barrage from Jewish militants Thursday night in the University Center.

William Pearce, former editor of the neo-Nazi White Power newspaper, sneaking on behalf of his National Youth Alliance, faced 15 angry Jewish supporters in a closet size Center conference room.

"I think there's enough here for a minyan now," one heckler cracked, as others slid "Jewish Power" buttons along the table to Pearce who was attempting to explain why the NYA was not a rightist organization.

He was repeatedly cut off by shouts of "Sit down, you son of a bitch" and "You're an ugly bastard." Pearce, visibly noted "There seems to be a large Jewish element here, which may or may not be representative of the George Washington University."

A gray haired, and bearded man standing in the rear of the room continued baiting Pearce, and the two exchanged angry glances. Finally Pearce smiled sardonically at the antagonist, and remarked "You think you're

The heckler proceeded to push his way to the front, waving his umbrella point at Pearce, demanding that he leave. Pearce responded feebly that Security claimed they "What're you gonna do about it?"

Suddenly, from all points in the room came a barrage of eggs, which splattered Pearce's head, neck, and chest. While the eggs continued, the orange smoke of a

Allen later stated the Program Board had sent a warning note to Security "which we don't usually do," but added Pearce responded feebly that Security claimed they received no such note.

The Jewish Activist Front of GW, which did have members at the incident, disclaimed any responsibility for the incident. According to JAF member James Lampke, "We planned to

by Michael Drezin
Asst News Editor

Keys, a pair of pants and an undetermined amount of money were taken from unattended lockers in the men's gym Friday afternoon while about twenty-five persons were playing basketball.

According to law student Ron Tipton, who lost a pair of pants in the incident, at least five or six persons left their clothes in lockers adjacent to the shower area of the gym. Tipton said the lockers were unbolted but that a maintenance man was supposed to have been guarding the area.

The extent of the loss could not be immediately determined because of Campus Security's policy prohibiting the dissemination of news without the approval of Director Harry Geighen or Assistant Director Byron Matthai. According to Security, Geighen is currently taking a "leave of absence" putting Matthai in charge of information.

When reached by phone at his home Sunday, Matthai was not aware of the robbery but said he could not let the Hatchet see reports filed on the incident. "I couldn't very well give you permission to look at reports when I'm not there and haven't seen them," he said.

The loss was first discovered around 3 p.m. when players were asked to clear the floor so it could be cleaned before the varsity basketball team began its practice. Tipton said he "heard people cursing" and later discovered that "someone had taken (his) pants which had nothing of value in them." Tipton, who lives near the gym said, "I had on gym trunks...so I ran" home.

One student at the gym who lost no property in the incident complained there is "very little control over what happens in the gym. People come and go like crazy. There's no one there to regulate it to speak of...It's really ridiculous."

Tipton said he will continue playing basketball in the gym but added, "I don't intend to dress in that locker room any more-- that's far too dangerous."

Considers GW Reforms

SFU Backs All-Univ. Assembly

by Kent Ashworth
News Editor

One of GW's leading proponents of the All-University Assembly concept is the Student-Faculty Union, characterized by SFU Secretary and History Prof Peter Hill as a "student-faculty civil liberties union."

"It really is a walk-in organization - open to everyone," Hill explained. "Anyone is welcome to raise any issues."

SFU, which operated an information center during the Mayday demonstration last spring and holds open meetings on campus issues, has been concerned with the All-University Assembly since Fall '71. The group is also considering changes in the University charter, and is dealing with the issues of departmental advisory councils and the firing of Charles McClenon from the Hatchet staff.

Vicki Anderson, student co-chairman of SFU, says the organization "makes sure that the rhetoric published by University committees is someday enacted."

"SFU is a microcosm of what an All-University Assembly might be," Anderson commented. "Students and faculty members have never worked together one of the chairs.

As the smoke thickened, the room emptied, save for Pearce, and Program Board member Doug Allen, who had introduced Pearce. Security was called, but before their arrival, the hecklers connected on a few more egg tosses through the crack in the door.

Center Night Manager Bill Knorr arrived, and helped escort Pearce to a men's room. "Does this happen here very often?" Pearce asked Knorr, who replied "This is the first time (since) I've been here."

While Pearce washed in the bathroom, most of the hecklers disappeared down the stairwell.

were beyond our control. People from outside the campus came in - not anyone from our group was connected with the egg or stink bomb throwing."

Shortly after the incident, the Jewish Defense League of Washington notified the Hatchet that "We're responsible for it."

JAF also expressed concern that the incident would damage their standing with the GW Administration. The group "deplores...the Jewish Defense League of Washington, including organizational branches at GW, American, and University of Maryland (for coming) to the event...carrying forth their own disruption without considering the consequences that would befall JAF."

The Program Board, which sponsored Pearce's appearance, passed a resolution Friday in part saying "The event... was a wholly irresponsible act by the people who resorted to the use of physical violence. We...cannot condone the heckling of a speaker, and...the use of physical violence to disrupt any program."

At present, an investigation of the incident is being conducted by Officer Doug Gurnsey of the Security Force.

The egg barrage was reminiscent of a similar incident in February, 1970 when former Young Americans for Freedom chairman Ed Grebow was the target of a similar missile hurled in wild disruption of a speech by converted conservative Phillip Luce. YAF sponsored that appearance.

Black People's Union Debates South African Over Apartheid

Life for the "Bantu and Colored" in South Africa is getting better and better, and soon these people will be prepared to "grasp the intricacies of government," a South African embassy staff member explained to a group of GW students last Wednesday.

"The sky's the limit for them," both economically and educationally, the speaker said, addressing seven student visitors to the South African Embassy on Massachusetts Avenue.

The little-publicized meeting was sponsored by the political affairs committee of the Program Board. The embassy speaker, however, would not reveal his name to the Hatchet because he "thought this was a private discussion."

Four of the students present were members of the GW Black Peoples Union. They questioned the man carefully, concentrating on the great disparity in per pupil expenditures in white and nonwhite South African schools.

"Of course the discrepancy is getting smaller," the man said. Furthermore, "The fact of quality education is, after all, of the utmost importance, not necessarily the amount spent. Your instructors, for instance, get less [than in white schools]. Your cost of construction is less.

Your bricks are cheaper, your window frames are cheaper, because they're done by their own people [in the 'native areas.']" True, he continued, many more whites than nonwhites get anything beyond a primary education, but this is not the fault of the whites. "You can bring a horse to water," the spokesman said. "It depends on the people's inherent desire to better themselves."

Perhaps, asked one student, he was implying that blacks had no desire to better themselves?

"Oh no," the official replied, "but as they go from one [cultural] level to another their desire to better themselves also grows." Eventually, with enough education, blacks will be ready for self-government, the official asserted.

There are, he said, "no blacks in the central South African government." Representation is "prohibited because the process is away from the white government to their own. They used to have representation but that has been abolished."

Futurists Study Industrialism

by Chris Conkling
Hatchet Staff Writer

The World Future Society, an organization attempting to forecast future events on the basis of well-established trends in society and science, met Sunday afternoon in the Center, to "invent the future," according to John Fondersmith, president of the D.C. chapter.

"By studying future possibilities," Fondersmith said, "men can decide more rationally what possibilities they wish to turn into realities. To a large extent, the future will be what man chooses to make it."

Founded in Washington in 1966 by a group of private citizens, the Society is a non-profit, non-political, non-ideological scientific and educational corporation.

The founders, active in business, government, science and other fields, feel individuals need to anticipate forthcoming changes, therefore needing an organization bringing to their attention the forecasts made by scientists, and government officials.

Guest speakers included Dr. Carl Madden, chief economist for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, who asserted "If one looks at the atmosphere of future thoughts that permeate our society, (one) will find, for the first time since the Renaissance, a mixture of optimism and pessimism toward industrialization.

Murray Turoff, an employee of the Office of Emergency Preparedness contended "The problem of discussing the future is that people fail to categorize how they will talk about it." He then proceeded to describe several inquiring approaches, such as those of Kant, Leibnitz and Locke, as possible alternatives to discussing the future.

Following the lectures, there were discussions on such topics as "Future Values," "The Future of Science and Technology," "The Future of Human Relations," and "The Future of the World."

Students Aid HHH Cause

A small but enthusiastic group of Students for Humphrey met Thursday night in the Center to organize a GW student apparatus to work for Sen. Hubert Humphrey's (D-Minn.) presidential candidacy.

Peter Hollinshead, chairman of the GW group, called for additional volunteers to "tell the Hubert Humphrey story."

Hollinshead expressed satisfaction at the student response to Humphrey's appearance at the American Program Bureau filming Jan. 28. Although the audience was at first hostile to the former Vice President, Humphrey "managed to really turn the audience around," said Hollinshead.

The organization's goals include the distribution of campaign literature, the enlistment of additional student workers, working on the national student campaign for HHH and active participation in the party primaries.

The Humphrey supporters briefly debated how their candidate should be presented. Although Humphrey has been weighed down

Outcome of Abolition

All-Univ. Assembly Nearing Creation

by Dick Beer
Editor-in-Chief

On Feb. 28, 1970 Neil Portnow, the last president of the last Student Assembly, stood before that group and announced its abolition, a move which he called "not an abrogation of duties, but a step to make student government more effective."

Today, two years after abolition, little headway has been made in the direction of increased student role in University policy making, but the major watershed for this question is coming up soon.

Second in a Series

When Portnow, who is now a professional musician in New York, unveiled his abolition plan, he proposed that work begin on the formation of one University-wide governing body made up of faculty, students, administrators and alumni, to be called the All-University Assembly.

After two years of sporadic efforts by a small group of students, some form of an All-University Assembly is on the verge of creation. President Lloyd Elliott is expected within the next week or two to announce the make-up of a steering committee to decide precisely what form the Assembly will take.

In an interview last week, Elliott observed that each University constituency, such as students and faculty, are asking "Will this Assembly be above or below us?"

"I don't see it as above or below," Elliott stated. "I see it as a co-equal" which would consider policy cutting across constituency lines. Examples of such policy which he cited included advice during "periods of crisis" on campus, such as the student strike two years ago, as well as advice in terms of long range programs in relation to the city, and "selection and recruitment programs" for potential students.

Elliott noted that advice from a multi-constituency body such as an All-University

Assembly will be "based upon much better understanding of the University's programs and policies" than would advice from any single constituency body, indicating the Assembly may have greater stature in the policy making than was the intent of the Senate's version.

At least as prominent a role for the Assembly is envisioned by Max Goldberg, who heads up the all student Committee for All-University Government. In an interview yesterday, Goldberg said he feels the Assembly must have an equal number of faculty and students and should also include non-academic employees.

Goldberg added that student government should be reinstituted, but stated "the All-University Assembly should come first."

Residence Hall Association President Jerry Nadler disagrees with Goldberg's strategy, maintaining that a strong student government must be formed first, before an effective All-University Assembly can be created. "Students have shown no responsibility in governance," Nadler stated yesterday, adding the new student government should be set up and strengthened "until it reaches the level of the Faculty Senate."

Nadler indicated that at tonight's Residence Hall Association meeting in Center 426 he will ask the RHA to back reconstitution and call for new elections for an undergraduate student government.

Prospects for any student participation in governance beyond the promise of an All-University Assembly and/or a student government, the judicial system, Presidential committees such as Parking, Bookstore and Food Service, dorm governing bodies and University Center boards, appear slim.

The Board of Trustees Commission on Governance, while coming out in favor of student membership on Board committees, clearly rejected the idea of students sitting on the full Board. Elliott has labeled student membership on the Board a "conflict of interest," particularly when matters such as increases in tuition or dorm rates are voted on.

A move to reorganize the Faculty Senate and give it student members was overwhelmingly rejected by the entire faculty at a meeting in March, 1970.

The next installment in this series will examine the faculty role in University governance.

Combat Campus Apathy, Demands Nader Raider

by Jerry Dworkin
Hatchet Staff Writer

Demanding an end to "student lethargy", Ralph Nader associate Don Ross called for student funding and control of the D.C. Public Interest Research Group (DCPIRG).

Ross, speaking to a large student group in the Center Thursday night, said, "We are no longer interested in symbolic demonstrations. We think the answer is to end symbolic actions and force the government to comply with existing laws or pass new laws, if necessary, in the field of consumer protection."

Ross feels the formation of a campus arm of PIRG would be relatively simple due to the District's academic resources. The first step is to build support by petitioning the student body. "It has been done on more the effort is really very simple. In the past, student movements have been crippled by the concept of continuity and the lack of expertise or credentials." He pinpointed the antiwar movement and Earth Day as examples of the "continuity syndrome." Claims Ross, "The number of public interest issues you can go after is vast."

"This university has tremendous resources. How are they being used?", questioned Ross. He suggested credit be given for independent work done in the field of public interest research.

campuses, bigger and smaller schools." Added Ross, "It can be done at any school despite the present apathetic condition."

Upon receiving student body support, he claimed, a consumer protection agency could be based at the University, with a two dollar semester fee tacked onto the student's registration bill. This money, he said, would finance the group and provide the salaries for a professional staff to be hired by students, elected into office by students, who would be acting as a board of directors.

The two dollar fee, he cautioned, would be refundable to those declining to pay. Ross feels that this "gives ultimate control of the group to the students." If the group proved to be non-responsive, students would simply withdraw their money. The basis of this, Ross pointed out, is that "A community has the right to tax itself if the community wants it."

But, "Money isn't the issue," claimed Ross. "The average college student spends $250 on wine, beer, and cigarettes, not to mention the illegal items. The money won't be missed."

The formation of PIRG in the DC area is made easier by the availability of interested manpower, he stated, adding that there are numerous professional schools from which personnel could be enlisted. Ross has set up consumer protection groups throughout the country and feels "The problems faced by other communities were far greater than those to be faced by D.C. residents in the setting up of DCPIRG."

Ross feels PIRG would differ from other student efforts. He stated, "The philosophy behind

Good Governance...

An All-University Assembly is close to reality here, and now is the time to give it solid backing.

Despite the very negative and reluctant treatment given this issue by the Faculty Senate, a good chance remains that the Assembly will be set up in an influential position within the University policy making structure. The Faculty, in stipulating that the Assembly be "subservient" to them as well as to a student government, should one be set up, once again displayed their abiding mistrust of the ability of students to make meaningful contributions to policy making.

But remember that there is nothing binding in the stipulations of the Senate. They constitute only recommendations to the President and the Board of Trustees. Given the rather more enlightened view of the capabilities of an All-University Assembly displayed by President Elliott as well as the Trustees, through their Governance Commission, there is real hope that the Assembly will emerge with a position as significant as it deserves.

We strongly urge the President and the Trustees to spurn the negative and narrow minded viewpoint peddled by the Faculty Senate on this matter and to work with interested students and faculty to create a respected and influential multi-constituency body.

...and Maybe Not

As talk about an All-University Assembly picks up, we can also expect to start hearing about a reconstitution of student government. It will be the main item on the agenda at tonight's Residence Hall Association meeting in the Center.

The timing could not have been much worse. This campus has always been plagued by a dearth of students willing to get involved in extra-curricular matters like University governance reform. Now that we appear to be on the verge of setting up an All-University Assembly, but with its specific powers still up in the air, we urge all students concerned about governance to unite behind this issue. It could be the most significant change in the policy

Bye, Chuckie

In last Thursday's Hatchet, a letter by Charles McClenon appeared in which he stated, "I am no longer chairman of the GWU Young Americans for Freedom. Whether they are happy or sad, I somehow think, all egotism aside, that people around here must care."

It strikes me that before we let Charles leave GWU, we should

"newsworthy" campus kahunas.

If your over-blown opinion of yourself and your accomplishments helps you get through the day, more power to you. Your pomposity is certainly not uncommon; it is quite like that of the smalltown mogul who, upon purchasing the bi-monthly newspaper, promptly changes its name to the Slawson World-Guardian. With the importance you attach to little disrupt a discussion with Dr. William Pierce, a member of the National Youth Alliance. The National Youth Alliance is an extreme right-wing organization which espouses anti-semitic, anti-black and anti-student sentiments. Although I unequivocally disagree with everything the NYA stands for, I cannot condone those that by physical violence (by throwing of eggs, a smoke bomb, and Student government can wait; it may not be needed at all.

Inexcusable

It seems that it's the little things that best make one aware, on a personal level, of how times have changed. Little things like playing basketball on a Saturday afternoon in the gym and then finding that your pants and perhaps wallet were taken from your locker during the game.

This caper, which stripped students of clothing, money and keys, is absurd and inexcusable. Perhaps a little bit of deterrent patrolling might help.

If feasible, a member of the Campus Security force should patrol the gym, especially the locker areas, during games. While it's unlikely that he would catch someone in the act, it just might prevent people who assume the areas to be unguarded during games from trying anything.

There are no guarantees. But with the University's incidence of crime becoming what it is, new steps should be experimented with. It's not that much to ask.

Someone really ought to set him straight about a few things. And so, with arrogance equalled only by Mr. McClenon's self-estimation, I have decided to fetch him back from fantasyland.

First of all, Charles, it might be a good idea to remember that there are people out there dying. Yet we are reminded ad nauseum that the horrors of war which have come to replace Steve Allen as standard dinnertime fare are now taken in stride. Knowing this, can you really believe that the ups and downs of Charles McClenon are going to arouse the multitudes? Isn't it just possible that your position in, out of, with, around or among YAF has somehow failed to capture the hearts and minds of the people?

In fact, there is no evidence to support your belief. To date, letters to the Hatchet expressing interest in your fate have been pouring in at the rate of none a day, and while signs bearing the demand "End Metro Construction" can be seen all around campus, I have yet to see one stenciled plea of "Where is Charles McClenon now that we really need him?"

Although I find it curious coming from you, I admire your humanism and respect for the worth of the individual that surely prompted your request that the Hatchet give more attention to campus personalities, or non-personalities, depending upon one's judgment. The simple fact is that this is a judgment call. Yet, in the best tradition of your presumptuously haughty sermons from the mount, you seem intent on making it appear that in this, as all else, yours is the only possible viewpoint or explanation - namely, that the Hatchet is bent on slighting will be in a position to do the same some day.

One final note, Chuckie. Former Alaska Senator Ernest Gruening will be pleased to read your report that Wayne Morse provided the sole dissent to the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution.

Security Inept

One night last week while walking down F St. towards Thurston Hall I came upon a body lying on the sidewalk. The body appeared quite lifeless and rather than play police myself, I decided to call GW security.

I walked down F St. and picked up one of the special emergency phones which rang three times before anyone answered it. I then explained my situation, giving the exact location of the body, my name, etc. - then I hung up. Moments later the phone rang back and I was asked to repeat the location of the body - which I did. Ten minutes later a security car arrived.

My purpose for writing this letter is not to knock down the GW security force, but to suggest that they may be stale, perhaps from lack of action. Had I been in grave danger at the time I made the call, I might not have been able to write this letter. Yes, mistakes will happen. In my case I was lucky - it was a drunk. The next person may not be so lucky. It would be better if the security force didn't make any mistakes. They can't afford mistakes, and neither can we.

Physical Abuse

I am writing to publicly denounce the actions that people took to deliberately umbrella) succeeded in stopping the discussion.

As Political Affairs Chairman, it has been my policy and will continue to be my policy to allow any recognized representative of any political organization, no matter of what political persuasion, to speak at GW, as long as they can meet my budget limitations. (Dr. Pierce spoke for free). I have always promoted the idea of free speech and of VERBAL, not physical confrontation.

I deplore any physical act to stop any political speaker, for at EVERY program I solely sponsor, both the speaker and the audience have a chance to verbally interact.

I at one time thought that education fostered liberalism which is synonymous with 'toleration.' However, I may be wrong. I think it is sad that I have to worry about physical attacks on the speakers I present instead of what could be a productive intellectual confrontation between the speaker and the student.

As members working to organize the GW chapter of DCPIRG, we would like to elaborate on Ralph Nader's letter which appeared in last Thursday's Hatchet. Mr. Nader's letter put forth the goals for DCPIRG; now we would like to set forth the means for attaining those goals. Based on the experience of Public Interest Research Groups in Minnesota, Oregon, Vermont and other states, we would like to outline the methods to be used in organizing and funding DCPIRG. Try a Little Harder

During the trip back to GW via Eastern Airlines' N.Y.-Washington shuttle, I sat in quiet contemplation of what Spring '72 would bring. More intriguing books, more delicious Macke food, and more — what? Actually, I had a severe case of pre-semester panic; that strange ailment characterized by a sweating forehead, trembling lips, teary eyes, and zero-degree hands. Those who have never experienced this peculiar affliction would call it "nerves of a passing discomfort."

I could hear my father's voice echoing, "It'll pass, you'll get to know the place and everything will be just dandy." Right. Well, I knew "the place" and I also knew I wasn't particularly fond of it or its globs of animated students. But then, GW was giving me the education I needed for my career. So why was I miserable?

Just then, an elderly, white-haired gentleman sitting next to me inquired, "Where are you going? Back to school?" "Yes," I answered miserably. Then he wanted to know what school, and how I liked it. (This was a ridiculous question. Hadn't he seen my watery eyes and my bigger-than-ever pout?) I answered him. "Yes, sir, I go to George Washington University, sure do like it — great place, great place." (Humph, I said to myself, that'll shut the old fool up.) It didn't.

"Sure is nice," he said while puffing on his pipe. "College, I mean. I seem to remember the people more than any course I ever took." (Great, I said to myself, another discourse on college life a la 1932. If I could only get off this plane...)

A few minutes later we landed, and as the stewardess was saying, "... and on behalf of Eastern Airlines and your flight crew, have a pleasant stay in Washington," I was gathering my bags and began walking to the front of the plane, when I felt a tap on my shoulder. I turned. There he was again. "By the way," he said, while folding a Wall Street Journal under his arm, "Try to be a bit more optimistic about school."

While waiting for a taxi to take me back to 'ol GW, I thought. Maybe I haven't given the school or the people a fair shake. Because I'm basically introverted and shy, it was easier to carry about a glum face and a dejected attitude.

It's only been a few days. No miracles have occurred. But there are people here who are nice, but they won't show it unless you take the first step.

So, if you think GW is a non-community, and the people don't particularly suit your taste, and the whole thing is a drag, you could be the drag. Think twice.

Faculty Priority: Power

There has been much head-shaking and hand wringing on the part of some faculty members and administrators on the pervasive apathy of the student sector. Uncontested elections, unattended forums and similar situations are used to back up the contention that, "they just don't care." No doubt, this is true to a certain extent. It seems that a more relevant question to examine is: how is the average student at The George Washington University allowed to, and encouraged to actively participate? One need only look at the minutes of the latest Faculty Senate meeting to find the answer.

In reading the All University Assembly Resolution (AUA), one fact becomes immediately apparent. There is great concern that faculty prerogative be safeguarded. This is understandable, if not taken to an extreme. An extreme is reached, when a body like the AUA is effectively rendered impotent — before the details are even worked out.

Although there has never been a representational body on campus that has not been solely advisory, the Senate has found it necessary to state, "... that the AUA be an advisory body only. ... The resolution continues, "... that the AUA be subordinate to the Senate, student government and administration."

However, more crucial is the next section of the resolution. "3. That the membership of the AUA be established with recognition of the experience

The question is not the experience or training of faculty members. The question is: who decides what the student needs? Ideally, this decision should be made by students and faculty, a situation afforded by an AUA. Instead we have an expressed desire by the Senate that they make their decisions in the Senate and we make ours in a Student Assembly, and as a subordinate structure we can have an AUA. Such a deal!

It is indicative of the situation as it now stands that no resolutions were brought up about what the AUA should be doing. Possibly, this was thought to be unimportant. What did come out loud and clear is that the Faculty Senate is very concerned about conserving its power.

To conclude: at present there is no provision for student or alumni review of the final structure of the AUA, though the Faculty Senate and the Faculty Assembly will be assured of final review before the proposal goes to the Board of Trustees. No provision has been made for inclusion of members of the community or for representation of the people who staff the University.

It is unfortunate that the attempt of students to work with the rest of the members of the university community for supposed shared concerns should be met by the insistence of the Senate (borne of "experience and training") that its power be preserved.

from each college in the District. These boards will accept suggestions from the college communities and the community at large concerning public interest problems; environmental control, sex and racial discrimination, consumer protection, housing and other pertinent issues. Proposals will be turned into a District board composed of elected representatives from the local boards. The number of representatives will be proportional to the number of enrolled students on each individual campus. The district-wide board will then direct the staff of hired professionals to work on these selected projects.

Students will be able to actively participate in DCPIRG, working as volunteer researchers, investigators, and other activities that will be set up by the local board.

Funding and initiation of the organization will be started by means of a petition drive on each campus. These petitions will call for a $2 fee per student per semester to be paid at registration time. The fee will be refunded 2-3 weeks after registration on request by any student who does not wish to participate in DCPIRG.

Enactment of this program will not be considered until at least 50% of the student body has indicated his or her willingness to pay the fee by signing the petition. We consider this proposal to be both equitable and democratic, in accordance with the principle of a community's right to tax itself.

Respect is defined as "to show consideration for." This respect is what the national anthem and American flag deserve by all peoples. training and long-term commitment of the faculty of the University, rather than seeking representational equality." In a similar vein, section 5 recommends that a steering committee be appointed by the president to work out the details and that this committee, "... (should) reflect ... differing potentials of training, experience and concern." And concern! I personally don't believe the concern of a tenured professor, living off campus, can approach that of a student. The basic question is: Who is this university here for? I used to think the answer was obvious.

Colonials Capture Thriller

Saturday night, Northeastern University showed 900 GW fans why they are the top small college defensive team in the country. They get the ball and don't shoot it, thus depriving their opponents of a chance to score.

In this game however, the Northeastern strategy succeeded only in keeping the score down, as the Buff prevailed by the whopping margin of 48-47. Actually, the Huskies did control the tempo of the game with their ultra deliberate style of play.

by Barry Bernstein

The game actually started at a relatively normal pace until the score reached 5-5. At this point, the Northeastern coach decided to have his guards play catch in the backcourt in order to draw the Colonials out of their 3-2 zone defense which had proved so successful in recent games.

The strategy succeeded as Coach Slone decided to send his players out after the ball, using both the 1-3-1 trap zone and the man-to-man to pressure the Huskies.

Northeastern managed to get easier shots against the Colonials at this point, but some poor shooting and 11 first half turnovers kept the visitors in sight of the equally cold Colonials as the half ended with Northeastern on top 24-22.

Randy Smith was the only GW starter playing basketball in the first half and his 10 points by intermission were the only reason the Buff stayed in the game in the early going.

As a team, the Buff shot a horrid 29.2 per cent for the first 20 minutes and were outrebounded by their smaller opponents 21-8.

Paul McDonough alone had nine rebounds by the half, more than the entire GW squad. Mysteriously, he finished the game with only eight rebounds according to the final stats.

The second half opened with a Northeastern basket to give the visitors a four point lead. Then Ronnie Nunn went to work.

With 5-6 Kevin Lecy guarding him, Nunn who scored 13 of his 18 points after intermission, took command and scored the Colonials' first six points of the second half to give GW a short lived 28-27 lead.

The Huskies then took control again and twice built up five point leads only to see the Colonials come back each time. With the score 46-41, Nunn

With less than two minutes left, the Buff got the ball back but Robbie Spagnolo's in-bounds pass was intercepted. Spagnolo stole a pass seconds later but blew the layup and appeared to be one of the goats of the game for GW.

But a key referee's call of a walking violation on Husky star Jim Moxley turned the ball over to the Colonials again and Spagnolo redeemed himself by hitting the winning basket with 20 seconds left.

Northeastern could not score in their last opportunity, and the Colonials had their fourth consecutive win and sixth of the season against 11 losses.

LIU Tuesday

The Colonials venture forth to Brooklyn for their battle with Long Island University Tuesday night at the Blackbirds' gym, formerly known as the Brooklyn Paramount Theatre.

The Blackbirds (9-9) are led by 6-8 senior forward Walter Jones, their leading scorer and rebounder, and 6-5 sophomore forward Fred Gibson.

GW will be attempting to stretch their winning streak to five games while LIU will be trying snap a six game losing streak. Their latest loss was to Marshall by nine on Saturday in a game played in Madison Square Garden.

Bob's Baby Buff, Burwell Bomb Owls 104-74 As Fans Hoot

With a 12-0 record, freshman basketball coach Bob Tallent had a lot to smile about this season. But Saturday night, the coach didn't smile until the Owls unleashed his potent offense, and Keith Morris ran the fast break to perfection. During this span of what Coach Tallent called "one of the best" GW ever, the Frosh's second leading rebounder, Bob Shanta, hampered by a bruise on his foot, still managed to grab eight second half, when his team got rolling and beat Prince George's Community College 104-74.

Despite a tremendous height advantage, the Baby Buff were unimpressive in the first half. The Owls utilized aggressive play and good outside shooting to stay close to GW. The Colonials had a scant 48-43 lead at the half.

by Stuart Oelbaum

Coach Tallent verbally lashed his uninspired players, bringing them to life in the second half. After the game, Tallent said "I hope these guys are not overlooking these games and thinking about Maryland."

Next Saturday the Colonials host the Military District of Washington club. Then comes the long awaited return match with the baby Terps, whose only defeat came at the hands of GW in the season's opener. The game is at Md.'s Cole Field House.

The Frosh displayed their awesome attack in a ten minute sport against PG in the second half. Clyde Burwell dominated both backboards, Pat Tallent game out of reach by winning a 27 point lead.

Burwell, the team's top rebounder, finished 32 points, 30 rebounds, and five blocked shots. The 6-11 Clyde got a taste of his own medicine though. A 6-4 Owl stunned the crowd by blocking three of his shots, but one was ruled goaltending.

Pat Tallent, regaining his shooting eye, led all scorers with 35 points. Pat upped his team leading average to over 25 a game. The Buff's second leading scorer Haviland Harper added 21 points.

Keith Morris scored only six points, but played a fine floor game. "Keith did a tremendous job running the break," said Coach Tallent. Morris' 14 assists were a season high for GW.

Tallent said he would rest Bob in hopes the bruise will heal.

Riddile Lost For Season; Knee Surgery Performed

Ned Riddile was charging down the middle of the court on a fast break against VMI. He made an abrupt stop to receive a pass from teammate Pat Tallent. But his left knee which was hurt at the beginning of the season, collapsed under his 6'-8", 195 pound frame. He fell with excruciating pain.

On January 28, Riddile had his knee operated on at the George Washington University Hospital. Now, walking slowly, crutches secure under his arms, he bears the burden of a cast covering the entire length of his leg. The recovery process is not a long one, but it is tiresome and annoying. He is eager to return to the court and do what he likes best, play basketball.

middle of January, but saw limited action. Then, against VMI, he tore it worse than before.

"The next day they drained three ounces of blood from my knee. That's when they knew it was in real bad shape. There was too much blood."

With the operation now in the past, Riddile is thinking about getting himself in shape for next season. Sometime this week the cast will be taken off and he will start using weights to strengthen the knee.

The year has to be a disappointment for the former high school star from Burgettstown, Pa. But he looks at the situation optimistically.

"I love to play, but this is one of those things you must take in stride. If you sit around and worry, it's not going to do you any good. I'm looking ahead and want to get back to work."

When he was in agony, Riddile still practiced his outside shot. When he could hardly walk, he stood at the foul line shooting free throws. Now, he can't wait to begin preparing himself for next fall.

Ned Riddile has the determination and dedication of a winner. He's sure to capture a dominant spot in the future of GW basketball.

Grappling News

Despite a 1-3 record, the GW varsity wrestling team appears to have become a permanent addition to the Colonial athletic program. An attempt to establish varsity wrestling last year failed, as injuries decimated the squad and forced the team to cancel its schedule.

Coach Mark Furlane now has 13 grapplers for the ten weight classes. Furlane said that while some of the team members lack experience, everybody is eager to wrestle and putting out 100 per cent.

An eight week layoff hurt the team as it came back into action February 1. The inexperience showed as the team lost to host American 42-18 and Gallaudet 36-21, February 4.

Junior co-captain Steve Silberman has been outstanding for the Buff. Silberman is undefeated and won both his matches against American and Gallaudet by pins.

The Buff will try for win number two against University of Baltimore February 18. Coach Furlane figured UB to be tough, especially since they beat AU. "But I'm looking forward to the match and so is the team," commented Furlane.

Besides Silberman, Don Pashayan, another co-captain, has also looked good. Plagued by injuries before the break, Don came back to win by a pin against Gallaudet.

With five new wrestlers, Furlane is confident the team will avoid the problems that led to last year's downfall. "We're getting great support from the athletic department and I'm sure that there will be varsity wrestling at GW next year," added Furlane.

by Jay Krupin

The hour operation one and a half weeks ago involved the removal of both the inside and outside cartilages in his left knee. The cartilages, which serve as shock absorbers for the leg, are not vital parts of the joint. The removal of this tissue from the knees is quite a typical operation for athletes. "It just takes time getting use to," explained Riddile.

"I never had any problems with my knee until I came to GW," mentioned the freshman forward. "The first day I stepped into the gym, I was practicing and stepped on someone's foot. I sprained it and then continued to sprain it until, finally, it tore."

Riddile was going to try and finish out the year and an operation was being planned for during the off season, probably during the Spring recess. He made his first appearance of the year against Richmond in the

Transportation Dep't Hit

Law Students Demand Tire Regulation

A group of GW law students have charged the Department of Transportation with lax enforcement of safety and performance standards for retreaded tires on trucks and buses.

The students, members of one of Prof. Banzhaf's public interest groups, SAFE-TRIP, claim DOT is ignoring a Congressional directive of 1966 that requires safety standards for all retreaded tires. Thus far, the Department has only issued directives covering retreaded automobile tires.

SAFE-TRIP contends there is a body of technical data showing retreaded tires fail more often than new tires. According to the group, "The failure of a retreaded, eight-ply truck or bus tire may cause accidents when pieces of rubber from defectively processed retreads lay in...roads and highways for any length of time."

A group spokesman claims "Defective manufacture of (these truck and bus tires) may result in serious accidents, yet there are no Federal safety standards applicable to such manufacturing."

Group Chairman Ronald H. Uscher contends the Department is just "dragging its feet" on the matter. "They just say 'we're working on it, there's not enough staff,' which is what all the agencies say."

Uscher admits the issue "is not an earthshaking matter," making it more difficult to apply pressure on the DOT. Aid from senators, he says, is unlikely, because "a senator cannot write back to his constituency, and say he's getting rid of retreaded tires. It doesn't have that kind of appeal."

The problem in getting the bus and truck regulations, he concludes, is due to what he regards as characteristic "low key confusion. These agencies move on, but not at the rate they're supposed to go."

A DOT spokesman however, took issue with the "foot dragging" charge, contending "It's just not true, I'd like to see their evidence."

DOT claims the problem is a matter of priorities. "There are other things," the spokesman claimed "that save more lives on the road. Not many people are killed every year from retreaded bus and truck tires."

SAFE-TRIP claims "In 1970, standards applicable to truck for every truck driver who died in the 12,000 accidents between passenger car retreads."

DOT considered this at least one fatality, 36 assertion "misleading. I'd like to see further data to support This indicates...the need for that."

Ecology Group Expands Services

GW Ecology Action, the student-run recycling group, has announced it will "expand services to the University Center's ground floor lounge and first floor cafeteria," according to member Larry Stopper.

Eco-Action, which began paper recycling operations in Mitchell Hall last fall, has since expanded to every residence hall, says Stopper, presently handling over 20,000 pounds of newspaper a week.

Stopper also said facilities in the driveway of Calhoun Hall are available to all local residents for dumping paper refuse. Stopper did say, however, that the recycling facilities are often hindered by "students who are not dumping paper - just dumping garbage. This generally slows the operation."

Eco-Action's program has been aided by the Physical Plant Department, who has "given assistance by providing bins and transportation," according to Stopper. "They've been really great."

In an effort to expand their activities, Stopper explained, the group "has come out against the removal of the H Street townhouses." No official date has been set for demolition, but in the mean time, said Stopper, "We're willing to offer any assistance."

Thursday night's Eco-Action is sponsoring a movie, produced by Metromedia Television, about the possibility of an ecological disaster in 1985.

not to the country but to yourselves. Your opinions are less respected by this act and you alienate yourselves from the society of which you are a part. There are hundreds of other students who disagree with the system but still have the courtesy, respect and class to rise. Maybe while you all stood for those few silent moments you could think of a constructive change.

Just remember, this is America, and you are at an athletic function where GW's actions are observed. If you care not to stand - come late and all is solved. If not, swallow your pride and show a little respect.

Sklar Lauded

The recent APB series of top political figures would not have taken place at GW without the dedicated work of Scott Sklar. Scott was the man who originally convinced APB to film the speakers here and Scott was the one who forced the administration to stop its nonsense and permit the program.

The APB is just another in a long series of political programs Scott has brought here. We have never had more or better political speakers at GW than we have had this year and probably never will again. The reason for this is the hard work Scott has put in as Chairman of the Political Affairs Committee. Before we started our summer vacation, Scott was already lining up speakers for this school year. The results of this work have shown up to the benefit of GW students. Scott deserves the gratitude of the entire student body.

Some of the skills you acquire in the Reading Dynamics Course

In Reading Dynamics you learn to read faster naturally - without mechanical devices and without losing the natural enjoyment or flavor of reading. Nor do you skim or skip. You triple your present rate by taking in entire thoughts at one time.

The course consists of eight weekly sessions of two and one half hours each. When you complete this course you will be a better reader as well as a faster reader. Here are some of the skills that are taught in the Reading Dynamics Course:

- How to read without hearing and saying all the words
- How to read more than one word at a time
- How to see and understand groups of words out of order
- How to find the thought in a paragraph
- How to read with a definite pre-established purpose
- How to remember what you read
- How to read smoothly down the page as well as from left to right
- How to adjust your speed to different kinds of material - that is, to be a flexible reader
- How to use your hand to pace your reading
- How to preview a book
- How to read newspapers and magazines
- How to read technical material - journals, texts, reports
- How to read classics and conceptual material
- How to make permanent recall records
- How to take lecture notes
- How to study for a test
- How to stabilize your speed and comprehension
- How to review material

Evelyn Wood
Reading Dynamics

Pat Richter can read the average novel in a little under 45 minutes. Even on the toughest material he rarely dips below 1,000 words per minute. Moreover, he can comprehend and recall what he's reading-right down to the letters.

Pat Richter is not a mental freak. Nor is he a natural fast reader. He learned this revolutionary technique of rapid reading at the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute. Pat was one of our better students. He started the course at about 350 words a minute and increased his rate 6 times. Our average student begins at about 300 words a minute and graduates at speeds over 1,500 words a minute. You can do this too.

"Reading dynamically," says Pat, "has really unlocked the door of education for me. Before, reading was a necessary evil. Now it is a definite pleasure."

You may not learn to read quite as fast as Pat Richter (and then again you might), but the nationally known Reading Dynamics Institute guarantees that you'll at least triple your reading efficiency with good comprehension—or receive a full tuition refund.

STRAIGHT TALK!

Published by the Western Guard

(formerly the Edmund Burke Society)

Editor — Stefan Lastofka

Directors — The Council of the Western Guard

The Western Guard is a movement dedicated to preserving and promoting the basic virtues of Western Civilization — individual freedom; individual responsibility; a self-sacrificing love of country; and a willingness to work and pay one's own way and not be a burden on others. These virtues have made our civilization great. Communism, socialism, and welfare-state liberalism are tearing it apart. The Western Guard stands for a regeneration of Western Civilization and firm action against all its enemies.

The Western Guard is financed mainly through small donations from generous Canadians. Straight Talk! is produced by voluntary labour.

WESTERN GUARD ACTIVITIES (Building Fund Announced)

The Western Guard has closed the bookstore at 1408 Gerrard St. E. (lease expired) and has decided to operate with a number of "bookrooms" throughout the city. Arrangements to purchase vital literature unavailable in Canada's liberal bookstores can be made by phoning the regular Western Guard number 466-3446.

In the meantime, the Guard has launched an ambitious plan to buy a headquarters house replete with reading and meeting rooms, guest rooms and possible lodging for single male Guard members.

The success of this plan to raise $5,000 for a down payment only depends largely on the Guard supporters. We have opened a special bank account at 1995 Bglinton Ave. E., Imperial Bank of Commerce. This is a non-personal Savings Account held in trust by the Western Guard executive. The account number is 4900960. STRAIGHT TALK! will report every month on the growing balance. Donations can be sent to our P. O. Box 544, Scarborough, Ontario. Credits will be given in full, by initials, or anonymously. Please specify. Supporters may also deposit donations directly (anonymously) into our account.

It all depends on you. Do you want the Western Guard to grow? Do you feel a need for its activities? The present balance is $475.00. Lend us a hand!

Western Guard spokesmen have given speeches at high schools in Scarborough and North York recently plus a number of interviews to local papers and T.V. Stations. See channel 10 cable T.V. if you live in West Toronto on July 6, Graham Cable T.V. at 8:00 P.M.

Some 10 Viet-Cong supporters were adequately doused with symbolic red paint at a recent Viet-Cong rally in Toronto. Congratulations to the Canadian Patriots.

STRAIGHT TALK! sales are on the increase in some Toronto bookstores, thanks to some energetic canvassing by Guard members.

Abortion is Murder and Shoot Drug Pushers signs are appearing everywhere on construction boards in Toronto along with the famous Celtic cross alongside. Let's keep it up.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

by Joseph A. Genovese, National Chairman of the Western Guard

It is with regret that I write this report. Someone once said that the greatest danger to a political movement is in-fighting. However, certain events stemming from the resignation of F. Paul Fromm from the Western Guard are herein laid out, not with the intention of promoting in-fighting, but in order to protect the Western Guard and to provide Canadian right-wingers with the facts necessary to decide their future loyalties.

The Agreement

When Fromm announced his intention to quit the Western Guard, at our May 16 council meeting (presumably because a council vote had gone against him), the following three-part agreement was made with him. Firstly, Fromm would remain editor of STRAIGHT TALK!, which would cease to be a publication of the Western Guard but rather would provide a panoramic view of all right-wing activity in Canada. For this purpose, the Guard would provide the use of its printing facilities and labour. Furthermore, all subscription money received after May 31st would be turned over to Fromm. Secondly, Fromm was to organize no other right-wing organization. Finally, there would be no press release made concerning Fromm's resignation.

Within twenty-four hours, I received a phone call from a newspaper reporter who wanted me to comment on Mr. Fromm's press release concerning the formation of the "Reconstituted Edmund Burke Society". The next day, a check into the status of our bank account indicated a "discrepancy" of $400 less than what Treasurer Fromm had reported to the council only two days ago. By this time, Fromm's thinking became apparent: F. Paul Fromm had been well-entrenched as editor of Canada's leading anti-communist publication for almost three years. F. Paul Fromm was widely publicized as a leader of the "Edmund Burke Society" which had only ceased to exist a mere two months ago and had five years of fame and glory behind it. F. Paul Fromm had the organization's money and electric typewriter. F. Paul Fromm had the mailing list. F. Paul Fromm had suckered those "street bums" in the Guard (who can't distinguish Mateus from Old Sailor) into doing the dog work of putting out STRAIGHT TALK!

The List

We realized that we'd been had, and we felt that we were under no further obligation to keep our word regarding STRAIGHT TALK! to Fromm. It was decided at a subsequent council meeting that STRAIGHT TALK!, which represented five years of sweat for the E.B.S. and the Western Guard, and not merely of any one individual, would remain in the hands of the Guard and that even though Fromm had quit giving no notice, STRAIGHT TALK! would be produced on time.

First, we were forced to resort to some Frommish sneakiness. Fromm had the mailing list and STRAIGHT TALK! could not be sent out without it. We did not tell Paul that the deal was off but played along with him and attempted to "borrow" the list to do a mailing to S.T. readers. Unfortunately, Fromm did not bite. After almost two weeks of lame excuses and wasted trips to his apartment by our members, Fromm finally came up with the list. He had been told that the list belonged to the Guard and we would get it one way or another.

We did not receive the card index, however, only an outdated typed version which lacked some 75 to 100 names of the most recent subscribers. If you know of anyone who has recently subscribed to STRAIGHT TALK! and has not been receiving it, please have them inform us of their situation.

That Change of Address

We also received a telephone call from BREAKTHROUGH leader, Don Lobsinger. Don informed us of a "change of address" card which he had received through the mail for STRAIGHT TALK! We immediately phoned Paul Fromm and asked him if he had sent out change of address notices to any subscribers. He replied that he had sent out a change of address notice only because he had recently moved. Now who has ever received F. Paul Fromm's personal address from F. Paul Fromm? He was obviously lying, since he says very little of his personal life (where he lives, works, etc.) to anyone. Reproduced on Page 8 in this issue is the card which Don Lobsinger received. It is clearly a change of address for the Edmund Burke Society (STRAIGHT TALK) giving a postal box as a new address. Incidentally, in the unlikely event that Paul just happened to Mistake his postal box for his residence, he lives at 35 Charles Street West, Apt. #?

If you have received a change of address notice for STRAIGHT TALK! Please ignore it.

Ten, Nine, Eight, Seven, Six, Five, Four, Three, Two, One

Fromm has since published Vol. 1, No. 1 of COUNTDOWN, which proclaims "THAT TRULY A COUNTDOWN IS IN PROGRESS. TIME IS RUNNING OUT FOR OUR CIVILIZATION". What a negative attitude to take regarding our civilization and our prospects for victory! The Western Guard maintains that only a positive state of mind and optimistic thinking will achieve our goals. COUNTDOWN is replete with phoney letters to the editor (in its first issue?) and phoney writers such as James Wolfe, Bruce Allen, etc. The object of the phoney letters was to degrade STRAIGHT TALK! for its quality since Fromm left. Come now, Paul, our last issue with which you had nothing whatever to do was one of our best. Our readers say so!

The Return of Jeff Goodall

Western Guard intelligence reports have confirmed that Fromm and Jeff Goodall, one-time press officer for the E.B.S. have formed an alliance. When Jeff Goodall left the E.B.S. two years ago and formed the New Right, it was all done on an amicable basis. Since that time the New Right, which occupies a legitimate place in the Canadian political spectrum, has enjoyed friendly relations and exchanges of information with the Guard. We hope that these relations shall continue even though ~~THE CHALLENGE, organ of the New Right, is destined to be supplanted by COUNTDOWN.~~ We had hoped that THE CHALLENGE, with its positive approach, would remain on the scene. Now it appears that the New Right printing facilities have been turned over to Paul Fromm. We hope it's worth it, Jeff.

New Procedures

In order to prevent a recurrence of the above mentioned difficulties, a number of changes are being instituted in the Guard. One of these is that no writer for STRAIGHT TALK! shall have any connection with the Circulation Department. Secondly, a double-entry checks-and-balances bookkeeping system will supplant Fromm's five-finger discount method of accounting.

The Last Straw

None of this story was intended to be reported to readers of STRAIGHT TALK!, because we felt that because F. Paul Fromm is identified as a right-wing leader, we would do more harm to the cause than all of Fromm's shenanigans did to us. However, the last straw came on June 24th at a meeting of the Social Credit Association of Ontario (Incorporated) of which From is president (put there by the efforts of the Western Guard, who provided the to "pack" the convention in London last September).

At the June 24th meeting, four plain-clothes police detectives were present. One of Fromm's flunkys admitted to having called them and Fromm refused to ask them to leave, because they were "doing their job". Obviously, Fromm felt the need for some protection as he even invited who he considered were two "heavies" to the meeting, and let them in without their entrance fee. But four police detectives? Now, our experience with police tells us that in such circumstances, one uniformed man would certainly have sufficed since our police have always been noted for not wasting their manpower. But why would they send four detectives—unless the police were promised something, an arrest maybe? Sure enough, one of our people was arrested, an individual wanted in connection with the breaking up of the homosexual meeting in the St. Laurence Hall a month earlier. Two of the queers accompanied the police and pointed out Maria Bones--that's right, a woman. While her sweetheart, Geza Matrai, rotted in jail for three months, Froma heaped praise upon Matrai in these very pages ("Man of the Month"), yet turns the man's girl into the police. Thank you very much, Paul. You deserve the "heel of the year" award. We want you to know, Paul, that we are holding you personally responsible for Maria's arrest, and this only goes to show what danger a coward like yourself is to an organization which boasts courageous people like Geza Matrai and Maria Bones.

by taxpayers' money) to Canadian national hero Geza Matrai (Guard member) has been taken into account by the Western Guard. This is in regard to the racing at the "queer rally". The Guard intends to urge the Parkdale citizens to close this fraudulent, leftist operation down. We hope to have a further report on this in the next issue of STRAIGHT TALK.

Guard members can also be located on most sunny Sunday afternoons discussing current events with concerned Canadians at Allen Gardens. Perhaps we'll see you there.

ODDS & ENDS

Contrary to Popular impression. In 1930, the U.S. national homicide rate with firearms was 5.7 per 100,000; in 1965, it was 2.9. Meanwhile, for purposes of comparison, it is interesting to observe that the over-all homicide rate in gun-controlled New York has in recent years been steadily on the rise--from 3.7 per 100,000 in 1960, to 6.1 in 1965. The New York case supports the view that, by disarming victims, gun control contributes to crime instead of preventing it.

New York state has on its books, for more than 50 years, one of the most restrictive gun laws in the U.S.A. Yet in a sample year (1965), New York exceeded the homicide rate of 127 American cities, where access to handguns was considerably easier.

McGOVERN--FIRST COMMUNIST PRESIDENT OF AMERICA?

Where Does George McGovern Really Stand

Sen. George McGovern is the darling of the radicals and establishment element, the money boys who pick the Democratic nominee, regardless of who the majority favor. The establishment crowd looks down its nose at the white working class and their favourite candidate, Gov. George Wallace, but, in their contempt for us, they have chosen the road to self-destruction.

Sen. McGovern is not receiving votes from the working middle class; his support comes from the far left and the upper income white intellectual crowd and the Jews. Very few of the rich white liberals know where McGovern really stands. They do not seem to realize that if he were elected, their money would be confiscated. IF ELECTED ~~GEORGE McGOVERN COULD BECOME THE FIRST COMMUNIST PRESIDENT OF AMERICA!~~

The following is the McGovern platform, his true views which are now being soft-pedaled as he attempts to move toward the "center" to capture the vote of an uninformed middle America. Sen. George McGovern cannot be elected unless he fools the people and keeps them from learning where he really stands on the issues.

This is the George McGovern Stand:

- 1) Complete surrender in Vietnam with an immediate total withdrawal without getting our prisoners of war back.
- 2) Cutting off all economic and military aid to the South Vietnamese government to insure a quick communist takeover.
- 3) Abolition of all criminal penalties for the use of marijuana, which would be tantamount to its formal legalization. He says: "No one should be sent to jail for the mere possession or use of marijuana."
- 4) National legalization of abortion by allowing anyone wishing such an operation permission with the approval of one doctor.
- 5) The rich would lose much of their money under McGovern as he would practically confiscate everything they made over $50,000. He says he would get $43 billion a year out of those earning over $8,000. He would increase inheritance taxes so that it would be impossible for a man to leave anything of substance to a relative or friend.
- 6) McGovern would raise the Guaranteed Annual Wage up to $1,000 per person in a poverty family with no taxes at all. A welfare family of 10 could be paid $10,000 a year. This is his plan for "redistribution of the wealth," taking from the producer, and giving to the parasite.
- 7) McGovern has promised Blacks that, if elected president, he would install racial quotas for all government jobs and for those doing business with the government. This would require the laying off of hundreds of thousands of white workers and their replacement by blacks.
- 8) -He favours total amnesty for all draft dodgers and deserters who have fled this country. McGovern would move that they be subject to no penalty, thus making heroes of those traitors by dishonouring our war dead. (Sen. McGovern actually aided and abetted treason when he stated: "If elected I would offer a general amnesty for all of these young men who have stood upon grounds of conscience against the war. I would welcome them back into the country, free them from jail and do everything I could to try and heal the wounds of this war.")
- 9) McGovern is not a "dove" when it comes to Israel and has pledged total economic and military aid to the Jews including the presence of America's armed forces stationed in the Mediterranean Sea.
- 10) On national defense, McGovern would cut the army's manpower in half, scrap our ABM Safeguard system, including the Titan ICBM's and new B-1 bomber. He says he would freeze our Minuteman III counter-missile force. McGovern would also scrap our space program, giving all the money saved to minorities on welfare to raise them up to the living standards of the white working middle class.

11) On integration, McGovern brags, "Yes, I am for busing, I think it is essential." But he does not feel it is quite so essential for his own daughter who is driven in a chauffeured limousine to an exclusive nearly all-white suburban school.

12) On federally financed public housing, McGovern urges that blacks be moved out of the ghetto and into white neighbourhoods. He states: "We must break the tight ring which keeps millions of blacks penned up in our city slums, by providing low-cost and mixed-income integrated housing in the outer city and countryside."

13) On aid to private schools he says he is adamantly opposed to any such help. McGovern calls it "unconstitutional."

McGovern stands right in the middle of the wild eyed radicals of the far left. Yet the daily press portrays him as a "moderate." Sen. George McGovern is opposed to just about everything that the white majority favours. His election would drastically change our basic fundamental political structures upon which freedom and liberty in this nation stand, and the principles of the U.S. Constitution rests.

GENOCIDE TREATY POINTS OUT NEW DANGER FOR AMERICANS

Americans everywhere were shocked to hear the news that 4 Americans had been charged in New York City with "violation of a U.N. resolution." The U.S. attorney's office said it had become part of the law of the land ! In the past citizens have been assured that they cannot be charged with violating so-called edicts passed by the United Nations.

There is a serious flaw in the U.S. Constitution which states that international treaties agreed to by the government become the "law of the Land" and even supersede American Law. We do not know who erred in allowing this nullification of the Bill of Rights to be made part of the Constitution, but it is there.

The 4 men were charged with violating UN sanctions against Rhodesia. They have been supplying ammonia for a fertilizer plant in Que Que, Rhodesia. Edward H. Bartlett Vermont tax commissioner, one of those charged said that this was "unprecedented and unfair enforcement of U.N. policies."

He said that the Nixon administration was seeking to deprive "Rhodesian farmers and inhabitants, black and white alike of fertilizer necessary to grow crops as well as depriving plant employees of work there."

Genocide Treaty Graver Threat

Last year the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee by a 10 to 4 vote brought to the floor the U.N. Genocide Treaty. If ratified by the Senate as a whole, it would be made a crime to do anything which "causes mental harm to a member of a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group."

In other words, freedom of speech and press would be destroyed because it would be a crime to criticize a Jew or a Negro--because it might cause them "mental harm."

A special effort is being made to force a full Senate vote on THE Genocide Treaty right now--TODAY! It is being promoted by 4 of the most pro-communist men to disgrace the halls of Congress. They are: Sen. Frank Church (Idaho), Sen. Jacob Javits (New York), Sen. William Proxmire (Wisconsin) and Sen. Hugh Scott (Penn.). Of course the Anti-Hate Bill, C-3, is already on the books in Canada where you'll be put away anywhere from 2 to 5 years if you should say anything which could be construed to be against any identifiable group.

INTEREST FREE LOANS WITH SIXTY YEARS TO REPAY
by John Taylor

On May 30th Mr. Roal Caouette (Témiscamingue) delivered an important speech in the House of Commons in Ottawa in which he showed that foreign nations are borrowing large sums without interest and with up to sixty years to repay while the Provinces of Canada are forced by the Bank of Canada to borrow in the U.S.A. at 8% interest which means that they have to repay three times the original loan.

Point four of what the Western Guard stands for states - "That the effect of debt is pernicious. Thus, Canada must seek to reduce our staggering $54 billion national debt, most of which we owe to big, international bankers and power brokers. This debt in interest alone gobbles up to 14% of every tax dollar. Parliament must strictly control all banking and money issue and must end once and for all our Government's habit of mortgaging the national soul to the gnomes of the international counting house."

Point four of what the Western Guard "stands foursquare against" states - "Corrupt business practices. By these we mean USURY--the practice of charging huge rates of interest for what amounts to a fictional transaction on a piece of banker's paper. Canadians, individually, and as a nation, are being wrung and crucified on a cross of debt to local usurers and to the international bankers. We also have in mind businessmen who trade with the communist nations, our avowed enemies!"

Thus the following quotations from Mr. Caouette's speech have tremendous significance for the members and friends of the Western Guard. Mr. Caouette is the national leader of The Social Credit Party of Canada and he was speaking regarding the Foreign Takeovers Review Act--Bill C-201. He said:

"This morning, I received a news release from the Canadian International Development Agency. This was most interesting. I quote: 'Canada is providing Nigeria with a $5 million interest-free loan--to help ease its foreign exchange problems.' Another release announces a $14 million loan to Tunisia. That makes $19 million and the interest will be paid by the Canadian people, according to the minister. Prime Minister Trudeau has stated that his foreign aid objective is $700 million.

Whenever we ask the same facilities for the Canadian people, through the Bank of Canada we get the following answer: 'with such credits, foreign countries buy in Canada!'

The province that would get interest-free loans would buy in Canada as well as the municipalities and the Canadian government. The Secretary of State (Mr. Pelletier) said recently: 'But the Creditists do not tell you that those countries must buy in Canada.' That would be the last straw: grant them credits to enable them to buy in Russia. I should like to quote a few former presidents of the United States. Thomas Jefferson said in 1801, and I quote: 'I believe that banking institutions are a greater menace to freedom than armies in action. They have already mobilized a money aristocracy that defies the government. The problems, confusion and anguish of the United States are...the result of sheer ignorance of the nature of money, credit and money circulation.' In 1865, Abraham Lincoln said, and I quote: 'The government should create, issue and put into circulation all the money needed to meet the purchasing power of the government--and the purchasing power of the consumers. The privilege of creating and issuing money is not only the supreme prerogative of the government but it is also the best occasion they have to create something...Money will no longer be master and it will become the people's servant.'

At that moment, Mr. Speaker, we could say that we become the masters of our economy. I said earlier that the Bank of Canada is allowed, under the act to grant loans for periods not exceeding six months. All we have to do is introduce an amendment to the Bank of Canada Act. Simply change the words "not exceeding six months" and replace them by "60 years" for instance as we do for India, Cameroun, Tunis, Algeria and many other countries. In fact, the Bank of Canada, is entitled under the act to grant provinces loans which amount to 25% of what the province may receive in taxes during the year...Indeed, extending loans for six months amounts to making fun of the provinces of Canada, of the federal government and of the municipalities.

When Mr. Bourassa (Quebec premier) borrows $100 million in the U.S., as he has just done, at 8% interest for 25 years, we will pay $200 million in interest alone... three times as much as the amount borrowed, will be the amount paid back.

So, we say: Let us do for the provinces what we are doing for foreign countries."

Before the culture destroyers (the vicious financial leeches that grab commercial control of Western Nations while the true patriots are fighting wars) set up The Bank of England in 1694, the Kings & Queens of England issued their own debt-free money. Canada can & will do the same again.

At a candlelight demonstration at City Hall on May 10, 1971, 5,000 Ukrainians gathered to protest against the communist enslavement of their homeland, and also to urge Mr. Trudeau to ask for the release of imprisoned Ukrainian intellectuals during his visit to the Soviet Union. One of their speakers asked "How can the Federal Government ignore 5,000 candles." Weeks later came the announcement from Ottawa of butcher Kosygin's visit to Canada. June 4, 1971 Toronto

On Sunday the 25th of June, 1972, 4,000 Toronto Ukrainians had another demonstration, featuring former Prime Minister John Diefenbaker as the guest speaker. Mr. Diefenbaker urged them to "protest, protest and protest. That is what these people have been doing for the past 20 years. What success has it brought them? Mr. Diefenbaker, on November 7th, 1969, crossed a Western Guard (at that time E.B.S.) picket line outside the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, to go inside and celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the so-called "Russian" Revolution. This same man spoke at the rally of "The Canadian Committee for the Liberation of the Ukraine".

It was the Ukrainian Students Club at the University of Toronto, who denounced the violent tactics of the Guard after the Lenin Anniversary Banquet was smashed in April, 1970. ~~Yes, with people like these running the Ukrainian community, the~~ Federal Government can ignore 5,000 candles. The only "peacefull" protests made in regard to the Soviet Union that they don't seem to ignore were those made by the Jews.

All East European communities must take a hard look at what the present leadership is doing for their communities. Maybe then the groundwork can be laid for a common-front of those communities to support the only group that has truly fought communism in Canada, The Western Guard.

Unbelievable words from a supposed "anti-communist" at a speech before the Canadian League for the Liberation of Ukrain as reported in the Toronto Globe & Mail of June 26, 1972:

Mr. Diefenbaker said he was asked to be chairman of the committee by the Ukrainian Canadian Committee, whose complaints of police brutality were examined in a judicial inquiry after police and demonstrators clashed at a rally to oppose Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin's visit to Toronto last October.

"Under no circumstances will I continue if there is any question that there should be confrontation, such as confrontation by the mob to get change," he said, adding: "But it's amazing what can be done with publicity."

In the U.S.S.R. today, he said, "those people in the Kremlin are subject to public opinion in a way that we couldn't have expected 20 years ago. In other words the Iron Curtain is broken down...by world opinion."

BALANCING POWER
by Stefan Lastofka

If you have followed closely Mr. Nixon's recent visit to Moscow then you should be thoroughly relieved of your paranoid feelings about the Russians dropping an A-Bomb on you in your sleep.

The Strategic Arms Limitation Agreement signed in Moscow should take care of all your worries. Or should it? Not if you are one of those eternal doubters who never take things at face value.

The S.A.L.A. limits both nations to 200 ABM's, which sounds fair. However, the U.S. is limited to 1,054 Land Cased ICBM's (Inter Continental Ballistic Missiles) while the U.S.S.R. is "Limited" to 1,613 ICBM's. There seems to be a slight disparity here in Russia's favour. A minor oversight on Mr. Nixon's behalf or more likely on Dr. H. Kissinger's part, who undoubtedly masterminded this agreement. Reading the agreement further we see that the U.S. is limited to 710 Sub Missiles while Russia is allowed a generous 950 Sub Missiles. Another oversight I presume.

However, it is these minor oversights which leave the U.S. at only 70% firepower compared to Russia at 100%, compliments of Mr. & Mrs. Rosenberg. This is without taking China into consideration. Even though their equipment might be inferior, their indoctrinated fanaticism and complete disregard for human life (their own, but especially that of others) should make up for their lack of hardware. Remember the maned torpedoes and Kamokazi pilots?

These facts wouldn't be too bad if one considers the obvious technical superiority of U.S. missiles, guidance systems etc., which might upset this disparity. But evil forces are at work in the U.S. itself to help again to tip the balance in Russia's favour. I am talking about certain computer manufacturing companies selling their hardware to Russia. In a country where national defence is their top priority concern (quite needlessly) these computer systems will be used to guide missiles closer to their targets. Meaning you. As Lenin pointed out "When the last capitalist is hanged, he will sell us the rope with which to do it." How true.

As for the worth of the agreement in terms of the probability of the Russians breaking it, President Eisenhower once bitterly pointed out that "International agreements historically considered by us as sacred, are regarded in Communist doctrine and in practise to be mere scraps of paper". In seven summit meetings between U.S. Presidents and Soviet leaders, twenty-five "agreements" have been made with the U.S.S.R. subsequently violating twenty-four of these agreements according to a staff study for the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee. A list of these violated "agreements" is needless since you can see the results of them yourself. The Soviet Imperialists and their running dogs gobbled up the better half of Europe in the process of violating these "agreements". Add this to a never reported $11 billion W.W. II debt to the U.S., a quotation from Stalin dealing with international agreements "Sincere diplomacy is no more possible than dry water,". Maybe by now you have realised the worthlessness of such a one-sided agreement.

This is what the feeble minded idiotic reporters in the Toronto Daily Star and the less affluent Toronto Sun were describing as a major breakthrough in the achievement of world peace, falling all over themselves in a frantic search for new and glorifying epitaphs in describing this odious sell out to the cause of International Socialism.

So, folks, when the bombs start falling, try walzing on "dry water" and if you start sinking, you can always hang on to mere scraps of paper".

AMERICA SURRENDERS ?

When Nixon sternly announced May 8 that he had ordered the harbors of North Vietnam to be mined and her rail connections with Red China to be bombed, millions of patriotic Americans cheered him. "At last," they thought, "our spineless government is doing something right!"

Oh, if only that were so! The truth is that Nixon's grim-faced announcement was a carefully acted bit of chicanery, the latest sleight-of-hand movement in a symphony of deceit and fraud conducted for him by that maestro of sharp practice, Henry Kissinger.

~~What Richard Nixon really did on May 8 was announce the total and abject surrender of American forces in Indochina: provided only that the Reds would agree to release American prisoners and not shoot at retreating American troops, the U.S. would immediately cease all military activities in Vietnam and evacuate all U.S. personnel within four months. After that, the Reds could do whatever they wanted to our South Vietnamese allies.~~

That was the essence of the May 8 statement. Had he left it at that, though, Mr. Nixon would be a sure loser in November's Presidential election. Furthermore, his pal Kissinger would be a candidate for the star role in a good, old-fashioned American lynching carried out by enraged patriots.

Birdlime for Patriots

By burying his surrender offer in a mock-serious hocus-pocus of mine laying and interdiction, Nixon diverted attention away from the fact of his surrender offer and onto the fantasy of a direct military challenge hurled at the Soviet Union-- a fantasy calculated to raise the hair on the backs of his listeners' necks.

~~This challenge is a fantasy because the cunning and wide-ranging Mr. Kissinger worked the whole swindle out with Moscow before his junior partner went on the air May 8. The men who run the System aren't the type who leave things to chance.~~

Unconvincing Indignation

The Kremlin could hardly ask for a better deal: an all-communist Indochina within a few months in return for not throwing a monkey wrench into the Kissinger-Nixon team's efforts to get themselves re-elected. The only complaint Kissinger and Nixon can have is that the Soviet Union isn't even bothering to put on a good enough show of indignation to make the hoax as convincing to the American public as it might be.

The timing is pretty clever, too. Four months, Nixon said. That means that even if Hanoi immediately snatches at Nixon's surrender terms and an agreement is formalized by, say, June 15 the cease-fire will remain in effect until October 15. The Reds will hardly have time, in the few days remaining before the November election, to consume South Vietnam and perpetrate on her citizenry the massacres they have planned--especially since even a brief continuation of the present blockade will cause severe logistic problems in coming months.

Phony Victory Claim

Thus, an immediate truce with Hanoi will allow Nixon to get completely out of Vietnam and have the peacemongers off his back by November. At the same time he can claim to the patriots that he has won a "victory" by mining North Vietnam's harbors. The election will be safely over before the Reds have a chance to butcher the South and our all-American suckers realize they've been duped again.

Heads They Win, Tails We Lose

If, on the other hand, Hanoi refuses the advice of her Soviet allies and declines a truce, her ability to continue waging war will have been reduced by the blockade, within three or four months, to the point where even Saigon will be able to hold her own. Then Nixon will be able to resume his withdrawals and stop his bombings—at least partially placating the liberals—while still claiming a "victory" to the patriots.

In this second case, of course, the American POWs got it in the neck, but from the Kissinger-Nixon viewpoint that's a minor consideration.

A Good Question

"Why", the puzzled citizen has every right to ask, "if Nixon is willing to confront the Soviet Union with his blockade of North Vietnamese ports, didn't he take other actions—such as the saturation bombing of North Vietnamese industrial and population centers, the breaching of her dikes and the flooding of her farmlands—which would knock the Reds completely out of the war, allowing the South to invade a totally devastated North and achieve a genuine military victory? After all, the government's only excuse for not allowing North Vietnam to be invaded has been that it might bring on a dangerous confrontation with her Chinese and Soviet allies. Now even that excuse has been negated."

Restraint in War Leads to Defeat

And let there be no doubt, saturation bombing of North Vietnamese cities—carpet bombing, such as was used to kill four million German civilians during World War II—would do the job. With B-52s instead of B-17s, Hanoi and Haiphong could be turned into blazing funeral pyres that would make the fire storms which destroyed Dresden and Hamburg seem pale in comparison.

The kind of war the U.S. has been conducting in Indochina—a purely defensive war, just like the war in Korea—cannot possibly result in victory. When one is only permitted to counter the enemy's moves but not take the initiative; to repel his invasions but not invade his own territory; to strike a strictly limited category of "military targets," such as SAM sites, but not destroy his ability to wage war—the best that can be hoped—for is stalemate, and that only at a terribly higher price than victory would have cost.

20,000 Lives Wasted

As it is, America has sacrificed the lives of 50,000 of her sons and gained only the humiliation of total defeat. Why? Why the continuation, year after year, of a no-win policy when every general and admiral in the Pentagon could predict the inevitable outcome of such a policy?

The answer is that the System was resolved from the beginning that America must lose the Vietnam war. Not that North Vietnam must win—there is no Council-on-Foreign-Relations conspiracy here to make Southeast Asia one big, happy "people's democracy"—but that America must lose.

Softening-up Process

Backing down from another tenth-rate power, abandoning another ally, losing more of our national pride and self-confidence, becoming accustomed to giving into the wild-eyed, fuzzy-wuzzies rampaging in the streets and screaming for surrender—that's what the System has in mind for us. It's all part of the softening-up process. It is simply an extension, on an international scale, of the System's domestic policy.

Destroy the System!

Nixon did not design that policy. He is simply a totally unscrupulous politician who does what Tel Aviv's man in Washington tells him to do, just as his predecessors did what Kissinger's predecessors told them to do. It is a policy which will continue until the System has utterly destroyed America, and then Western man—or until we destroy the System.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Congratulations on the faggot wipe-out. What a totally hilarious scene, to see those cruddy criminal limp-wrists running around like a bunch of headless chickens. We can chalk up another glorious victory against the enemies of our race. Those charity sponges, those governmentssponsored ----- (literally) got everything that they deserved. Those in the government who supported them will get theirs in time too. Victory is not far away.

I noticed that you mentioned the Process briefly in your last excellent copy of STRAIGHT TALK! I've made a study of these commie freaks, and they, like the faggots as we well know are supported by the subversive home-financed Mao-Trudeau regime. It is almost difficult to conceive that a government that wishes the best for its people reputedly, is giving out money to these hippie Anti-Christ's while citizens like ourselves who are trying to do something about the pinko supremacy have to scrounge what we can. A financial stab in the back is still a stab in the back. These Process Anti-Christ's are today on government (our) money capturing converts for their cult of the Devil. It is not safe for our youth to walk the streets anymore.

You'll recall the press that the Sun gave them when the multiple frauds of the LIP grants were exposed for the frauds that they were. Apparently the apologists have been at it again. It looks like they (the Process and others of that ilk) will probably receive more money for their so-called "charity work". John Anderson Commissar of the Metro Social Service says that the Process is doing a worthwhile service and will be rewarded with more money. I investigated their so-called works of charity, but the gall of these devil worshippers is enormous; they maintain free clothes centres and a drop in centre for hippie-druggie dead beats. Their so-called free service centres exist as fronts to facilitate a basis of frauding the government and social service agencies for more money and grants. There are really no services provided worth anything unless the inducement of devel worship be a virtue. Their operation only furnishes an agency which provides support and sympathy to immoral hippie drug freaks. They along with other vermin should all be shot. Demon lovers supported by Mao-Trudeau are not going to help our race.

These Satan worshippers are the best friends of the creeps of Rochdale. They are working on the converting of druggie freaks in Rochdale into Satan lovers. What a combination! Druggie-pinko-Anti-Christ's.

These degraded Satanists are licking the boots of various social agencies on a friendly basis (999 Queen St., Addiction Research Foundation, Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital) and offering their time, support and help to these commie shrink swine.

The Process are still recruiting young innocent kids for their cult up and down Yonge Street. These children do not understand that under the Process's perverted "Christian" love-hate psychiatric mumbo-jumbo lies the sinister intention to deceive and subvert the morals of our race. The spokesmen of these anti-Christ's are superb at soft soaping their activities and are trained to the acme of political finesse. Just as smooth as Trudeau.

The Satanists pretend to have nothing to do with drugs or abortion; it is however well known to anyone who has been made to kill himself by drugs or anyone who is pregnant that the place to get connected is either Rochdale or the Process coffee-house. These devil-worshipping hippie "peacenicks" have got to be wiped out.

The Process has an auxilliary arm to help them get rid of people they deem antagonistic to their cause. They buy motorcycle hoods to wipe out opponents. The Process disease is spreading. It is in Chicago, Boston, New Orleans, New York, etc. It must be stamped out now.

These satan worshippers started in England by some nut who now goes by the name of De Grimston, (his real name is Moor) and his wife Marianne. Marianne Moor used to be a high class "babe" who circulated in the Profume-Keeler aristocratic and money circles.

This creep De Grimston actually has the gall to call himself the "reincarnation of Christ". The young gullible kids probably believe him. They have very little experience with this kind of thing. Soon the children will partake of Satanic drug and blood orgies and sacrifices whilst believing what they are doing is all right, because the De Grimstons are gods. Young girls will be sold to prostitution rings just like Manson (Sharon Tate Murders) was a pimp and a member of the Process.

Ultimately it is the rich financiers who are behind them. It just is a simple fact that they can't make any money selling flashy magazines on the street. We know who runs the government and perpetrates sedition amongst the people. Who else stands to gain by the corruption which they engender by drawing away the youth from our way of life.

Sincerely,
H. H.

(V-E-R-Y Interesting, ed.)

Dear Sir:

It has been brought to my attention that your Society has somewhat similar aspirations as I have in my undertaking and I would be glad to have details.

My object is to try to persuade the educational authorities to include in the public school curriculum a course on the qualities associated with good morals, good character, good citizenship and the practical qualities essential to contend with the every day problems of life such as, industriousness, thrift, prudence, patience, will power, stability, constancy of purpose, etc. Some of the moral and character qualities I have stressed are honesty, truthfulness, reliability, etc. Altogether I have dealt with about sixty qualities. My manuscript consists of over 60 pages. My idea in writing to you is that perhaps you might have ideas I could use and that you might get some ideas out of mine. I will be glad to hear from you

Sincerely,
T.C.H.

Regarding Zionism

Dear Sir:

I see you carry Billy Hargis' Christian Crusade Weekly and it's to my understanding that Hargis is pro-Israel in the Middle-East according to Time Magazine, August 29, 1969 and yet you are anti-Zionist. How do you explain this?

T.H.
Winnipeg, Manitoba

(Editor's Note: The Christian Crusade Weekly is anti-Communist. The Western Guard is for Justice in the middle-east. The Palestinians were booted out of their ancient lands by a terror that is never honestly described in the press or media of the West and by a people 40% (in America 90%) of whose ancestors had never lived in The Holy Land at any time--the Khazars were converted to Judaism between 710 and 963 A.D. Unscrupulous world encircling financial forces are responsible for the present settlers there--most of these are poor people. Now supposing that our red brothers, the Canadian Indians, became nuclear equipped and militantly led. Would we want them to blow up our homes and kick us out. Of course the answer is "No". By the same token, the answer for Israel must be Justice, neither pro nor con in the usual sense but this is predicated upon a total destruction of the international finance behind these horrors and the much greater troubles that lie directly ahead, so that Justice may prevail for all the people's concerned.)

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

America pays $40,000 per minute in interest to international financiers.

Paul Hellyer doesn't want to miss cashing in on the anti-communist sentiments of our citizens of East European origin. He said that he could tell a lot about reds in government agencies but he is held back by the cabinet secrecy oath. If it's a matter of Canadian national security, which it is, then let's have the details, Paul. No oath to the likes of Trudeau should be binding if the liberty of the Canadian People is at stake. This "anti-communist" is also a Bilderberger and a One World Federalist.

Many American traitors are hiding out in Canada after assuming the identities of dead people in an effort to avoid capture. Ronald Kaufman, 33, a Milwaukee native who has been charged in connection with the placing of nine bombs in banks in Chicago, New York City and San Francisco is one example. California authorities disclosed that Kaufman assumed the identity of James Edward Jensen, a dead infant, when he enlisted in the Army last summer, and later when he obtained a passport.

Henry Kissinger is the real "president" of the U.S.A. He has a personal staff of 150 people.

The U.S. gov't has just granted $10 million in credit for sales of military equipment to the red regime in Chile.

* * * *

Over one-half of the children being born this year in Washington, D.C. are illegitimates.

* * * *

The x-rated movies which are too filthy for decent adults to even look at in a picture show are now being sold to the television networks and will be coming into the Canadian homes to debauch and corrupt our families in the very near future, unless someone calls a halt to it through protests, letters and telephone calls to the stations. They intend to show them late at night. The series from the B.B.C. will deal with "Casanovas exploits".

* * * *

All Jews are not Zionists. An advertisement appeared in The New York Times not long ago entitled, "Zionism The Enemy of the Jewish People". It included the following words: "Zionist propaganda--clever, sustained, well-financed--has succeeded in misleading many Americans, both Jews and non-Jews". The ad was paid for by the Brooklyn chapter of what is called the Meturci Karta.

The noted Education Testing Service of Princeton reports that 29% of all negro students receive scholarships and 21% receive student loans. This is compared with only 10% of whites receiving funds from either source.

Of those who did receive aid, it was revealed that the average negro student was given $1,325 per year, while the poor white only received an average of $858 per year.

On the side of economic discrimination, the most expensive prestigious colleges allowed 41% of blacks from poor families to be enrolled, but only 27% of poor white youths were entered.

The daily press played down just how strongly the people of suburban Detroit oppose the busing of their children into the dangerous downtown black ghetto. They voted for Gov. George Wallace in Macomb County by the astounding landslide of 138,958 to 8,869 votes. The latter figure represents all other candidates combined.
